

Physician Opportunities

Note: Our opportunities do not qualify for J-1 Visa candidates.

Family Practice (Traditional - No OB): Excellent employment opportunity to join a well-established practice of three physicians; Seeking BC/BE physician. Compensation at $175K; productivity bonus; health benefits; retirement (401K) after first year of employment; 3 weeks vacation; 1 week CME; partnership track; relocation expense; resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment. Call for both the practice and hospital will be 1:3 - one week at a time every third week, allowing two weeks at a time with no call. The founder (aging physician) of the clinic does not take call.

OBGYN: Excellent employment opportunity to join a well-established OBGYN practice. Seeking BC/BE physician to join two physicians with a well-staffed office including a nurse practitioner. Compensation: $260K; health insurance; retirement (401K) after first year of employment; CME $2000 per year with five days paid; three weeks vacation accrued per year; relocation expenses; $2000/month resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment; partnership may be offered after two years.

Neurology: Excellent employment opportunity to establish practice with a competitive starting compensation at minimum $250K; health benefits, malpractice, relocation expense; paid professional practice establishment services; $2000/month resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment; seeking BC/BE physician with ability to build a full spectrum practice including all aspects of neurological care.

Internal Medicine (Traditional): Excellent opportunity to establish a traditional private practice; seeking BC/BE physician; options of employment or a generous two-year gross collections guarantee to establish an independent practice; relocation expense; paid professional practice establishment services; $2000/month resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment.

Pulmonology/Critical Care: Excellent opportunity to establish a traditional private practice; seeking BC/BE physician; options of employment or a generous two-year gross collections guarantee to establish an independent practice; relocation expense; paid professional practice establishment services; $2000/month resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment; opportunity to build a full spectrum practice including all aspects of pulmonary care, including sleep if desired. The Hospital operates an accredited 4-bed sleep center.

Rheumatology: Excellent opportunity to establish a traditional private practice; seeking BC/BE physician; options of employment or a generous two-year gross collections guarantee to establish an independent practice; relocation expense; paid professional practice establishment services; $2000/month resident stipend; potential assistance with education loan repayment.